

Student/Parent Mock Election

2007

FAQ

Thank you for your interest in the 2007 Washington State Student/
Parent Mock Election!

Below are answers to many frequently asked questions about the mock election. For more information visit our website at www.vote.wa.gov and click on "Vote for Kids."

When can students vote in the mock election?

Mock election week is from October 29 - November 2, 2007, the week before the General Election.

Who can participate?

All Washington students in grades K-12, as well as parents, grandparents, and teachers are invited to participate. Participants do NOT need to be U.S. citizens or registered voters.

Where do students go to vote?

Go to www.secstate.wa.gov/elections/students.

Is the mock election free?

Yes. There is no cost to participate.

Are there any requirements for participation?

Students must register online. Supporting activities such as debates and campaigns enhance the mock election experience and are encouraged, but are not required.

Are student votes anonymous?

Yes. Student information is not retained for any purpose.

How will students know the results of the election?

The results will be posted at www.secstate.wa.gov/elections/students/results after 5 p.m. on Friday, November 2, 2007.

What will be on the 2007 mock election ballot?

Students can cast votes for the initiative, referendum, and four constitutional amendments that will appear on the General Election ballot. Young children will be presented with a simplified, age-appropriate ballot.

Who endorses the 2007 Washington State Student/Parent Mock Election?

The mock election is endorsed by:

- Office of the Secretary of State
- Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction
- Washington State Association of County Auditors
- Association of Washington School Principals
- Washington State School Directors' Association
- Humanities Washington
- Washington State Parent Teacher Association

I have a question about the 2007 Washington State Student/Parent Mock Election not addressed on this website. Who can I ask?

Contact Amanda Vert in the Washington Secretary of State's Voter Outreach Program, at avert@secstate.wa.gov or (360) 725-5795.

